FOREWORD

In order that we may provide a lasting record of our events and experiences of the past year for the students of L.C.H.S. and that we may relate for our parents, the alumni, and associates of our school an account of our past year's school life, we, the Annual Staff, present the 1963 EXCELSIOR. Our desire is that all who read these pages may develop a greater love and appreciation for our Christian high school. To accomplish this desire we have chosen as our theme, "HERE ARE MY HANDS, LORD, USE THEM."

DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff, are proud and happy to dedicate the 1963 EXCELSIOR to you, MR. ERNEST TER WISSHA in deep gratitude for the eight years of untiring, ceaseless work you have accomplished.

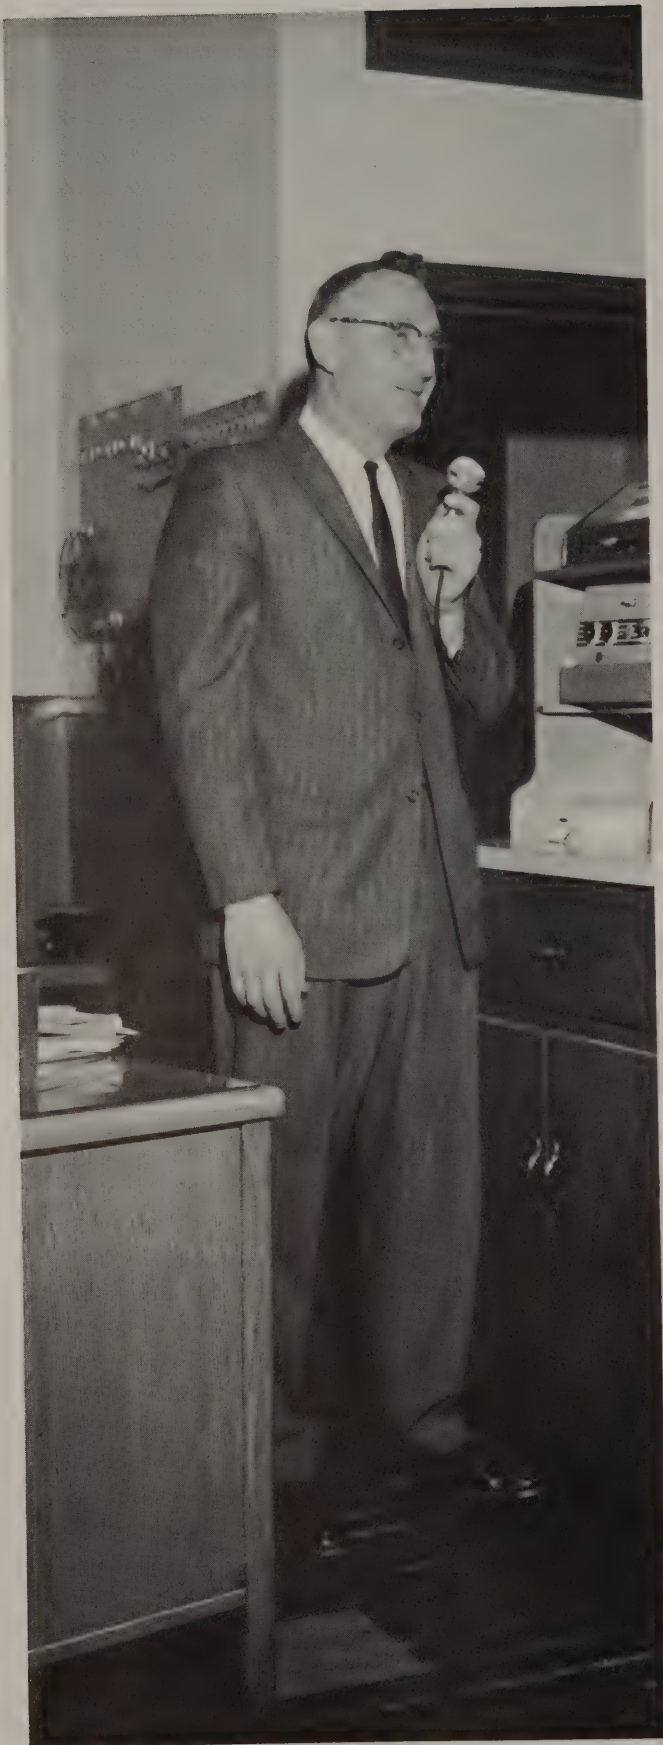

This is not done without reason - for the entire student body realizes that you are very deserving of this honor. Your fine Christian character, unflinching sacrifices, friendliness, willingness, and patience have contributed much to the welfare of L.C.H.S. throughout these years. It is indeed our greatest hope that you will continue to serve us for many years to come and that you will also continue to receive God's richest blessings in your future work.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

Dear Graduates of 1963:

Our hands are frequently used to help express a thought or an emotion. You need only to think of the clenched fist and you associate this gesture with anger. Folded hands may portray an attitude of prayer. A pointing finger serves to clearly define who or what is being singled out.

In the theme of this book you have dedicated the use of your hands to the service of the Lord. This is symbolic language, of course. Hands do not act in isolation from the rest of the body or without a motive first conceived in the mind.

The difference between a Martin Luther's hands nailing 95 theses to a door, and an Adolph Hitler's hands directing the murder of millions of helpless people is not in the size of the gloves they wore, but rather in the dedication of Luther to the service of the Lord and Hitler to the service of Satan.

The difference between a Pilate's hands, "washed in supposed innocence" and the Christ's innocent hands subjected to cruel nail piercing is not due to different racial background or social status, but to the motive of a Pilate to please the people, and of the Christ to do the will of His Father who had sent Him.

Each of you will be called to wider service than what you have experienced thus far. Many of the things you have learned at Christian High you will be using in your future work. Whether you serve as a business man, a doctor, a farmer, a minister, a nurse, a secretary, a housewife, or a statesman is not the most important consideration. From what motive, for what reason you serve is the most important.

The Apostle Paul summarized it in I Cor. 10:31: Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever you do, do all to the glory of God.

If each of you will start with this humble beginning, "Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to Thy cross I cling; you will be able to go in real strength and say "Take my hands and let them move, at the impulse of Thy love."

God grant the desire to each of you to so dedicate his life.

Yours as ever in Christ,

Ben Boxum

SEATED: Ben Boxum, Superintendent; George Rozeboom, Vice President; Joe T. De Jong, President; Chris Van Andel, Harry Pilon, Arnie Blankers. STANDING: Len Bode, Frank Bouwman, Albert Meenk, Gerrit Hereinga, Floyd Assink, Secretary; Alfred Brink, Treasurer; Harold Boume.

School Board

Graduating Class of 1963:

No doubt many of you, as you reflect on your High School days will say, "how swiftly the days and years have gone by." You will no longer be a student at Lynden Christian, but will be counted among the Alumni.

The Board is happy that you were privileged to attend and graduate from a Christian School. It is our hope and prayer that as your ways part and you will no longer work collectively, but individually, that the instruction, the training you have received at Lynden Christian will in a measure more qualify you for the tasks and decisions you will be required to make as you enter upon a new era in your life. May it, first of all instill in your hearts an earnest desire to serve and witness for your Lord and Master, at all times realizing that this is our "Father's world." May you ever seek and reach out for those things that are of eternal and abiding values.

Col. 3:2 "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

Congratulations and God's richest blessings on your future.

Lynden Christian School Board.
Joe T. De Jong, President.

Officers: Seated: Jack Byeman, President. Standing: Linda Terpstra, Secretary; Gerry Heyboer, Vice President; Colleen Terpsma, Treasurer.

The 1962-63 Student Council of Lynden Christian High School would like to take this opportunity to thank our advisor, Mr. Ben Boxum, the faculty and the entire student body for helping make this another successful year.

Beside the many routine activities of the council, we set up a clean-up system for the grounds, made improvements on our buildings and made revisions concerning cheerleader elections. ASB elections, the awards assembly and cheerleader tryouts concluded our activities.

As we look back on the school year, we can see that God has richly blessed us in many ways. Not only did He see fit to bless our student body in all our activities, but also in our Christian environment at LCHS. Truly, the Christian education at Lynden Christian High is a sturdy foundation for our lives.

Thank You.

ACTIVITIES

CHAPEL

Because purpose of the Christian Educational system is to learn about the creation by studying it in relation to its creator, the faculty and students at LCHS have recognized the need of devoting time exclusively to the creator. The first half hour every Monday and Thursday has been designated for this purpose.

Guided by Mr. Alan Wyatt, Bible instructor, the students lead a short song service, read a portion of the Bible, give special numbers and provide musical accompanists. Stimulating talks for thought and discussion are provided by the faculty and local church ministers.

TORCH CLUB

This honorary society consists of all individuals in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes who have obtained a B plus or better average the previous year. Being a member of this club for three years entitles the member to a Torch Club Pin. Mrs. Marie Meenk acted as sponsor of this organization.

OFFICE GIRLS

As a means to earn additional credits, several girls give up their study hall and noon hour to work in the office. Their duties include recording grades, typing, answering the telephone, and running errands.

MISSION CLUB

Mission club members packed baskets of food for distribution to needy families.

By personal evangelism and helping the physical and spiritual needs of individuals in the community, the spiritual life of Mission Club members has been developed. A scavenger hunt for used articles, visiting rest homes, and distributing gifts to the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas are among the clubs' main activities. Officers were Adie Van Zanten, President; Lynn Vander Giessen, Vice-President; and Bud Brouwer, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Alan Wyatt was the advisor.

USHERS CLUB

The necessary task of distributing programs, taking offerings, and ushering at various school functions is performed by the Ushers Club. Membership is limited to Junior Class Girls, who are advised by Miss Emma Zylstra.

DEBATE TEAM

The Debate topic of vital interest and importance to the United States is, "Resolved: that the United States should adopt a system of reciprocal free trade with non-communist countries." Battling with wits and words, the debaters have achieved victories over local and neighboring counties' school debate teams.

BOYS' 4-H CLUB

The 4-H motto, "To Make the Best Better", correctly describes the efforts of the Boys' 4-H Club.

Intended not only to increase their skill of working with wood and metal projects, and dairying, the 4-H Club more importantly builds better citizens for the future. Demonstrations and contests held in spring and summer give the boys a chance to show what they have learned.

PEP CLUB

The purpose of the Pep Club is to provide enthusiasm at basketball games and to give support to the team. Membership in Pep Club is limited to junior and senior girls. At the conclusion of the school term the Pep Club honors the basketball players with a banquet. The Drill Team, which furnishes entertainment during half-time at home games, is selected, by tryouts, from the Pep Club.

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a person's arm and hand, possibly a basketball player, with the word 'ATHLETICS' overlaid. The image is dominated by dark, shadowed areas, with the arm and hand appearing as bright, illuminated shapes against the dark background. The lighting creates strong highlights on the skin, emphasizing the contours of the arm and the fingers. The overall mood is dramatic and athletic.

ATHLETICS

VARSIY BASKETBALL

The basketball season this year started off very successfully with a seven game winning streak. The first loss came at the hands of the cross-town rivals, Lynden High. A fight all the way resulted in a second place tie with Blaine after winning our final two league games. A coin flip determined the LYNCS third-place position in the district tournament. At district the LYNCS were eliminated after winning one game and losing two.

STUDENT LIFE

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

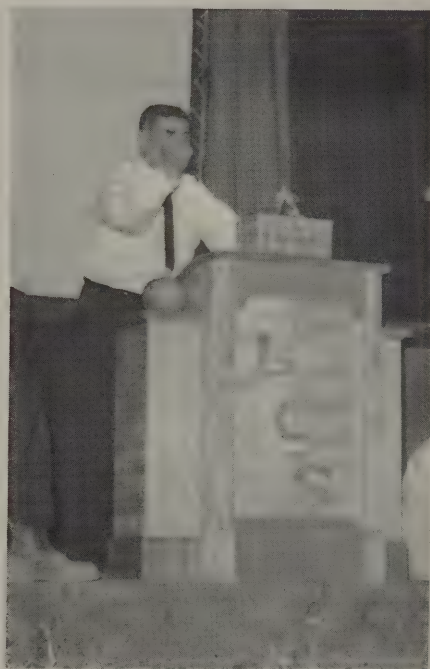

Everyone especially enjoyed the unusual Freshman Initiation at the Mixer.

Darryl was favored with an unusual rain shower at the Mixer.

Everyone enjoyed the Tolo Box Social sponsored by the Annual Staff.

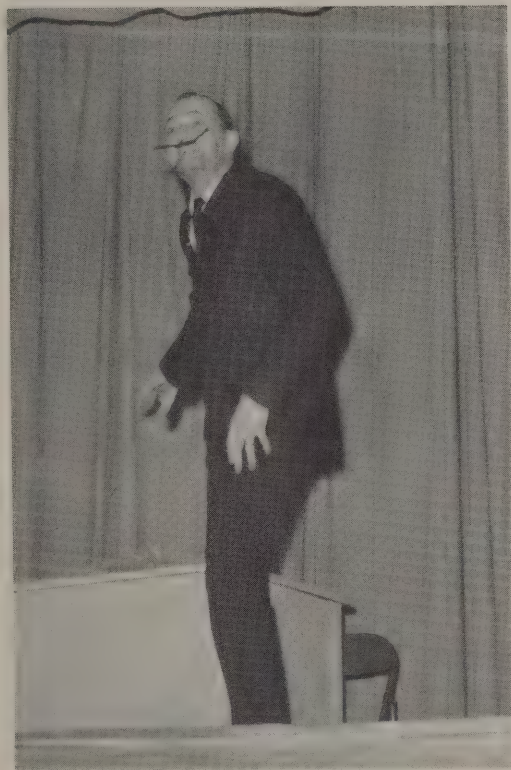

LeRoy Smith auctioned off the many decorated boxes at the Box Social.

Mrs. Wymore, Mr. Vander Pol, and Miss Haverhals undergo much distress in a dramatic scene from the Teacher's Assembly.

Roman-nosed farmers, ferocious looking????, and bums also turned up at the successful Masquerade Party.

Mr. Wyatt acted well the part of villain in the Teacher's Assembly.

Japanese and Negroes along with clowns were present.

The busses were almost completely segregated—to the delight of some and dismay of others.

Senior Skip Day

Rich, along with everyone else, made the most of his day.

Senior boys attempted throwing girls into the water, on the ferry and elsewhere.

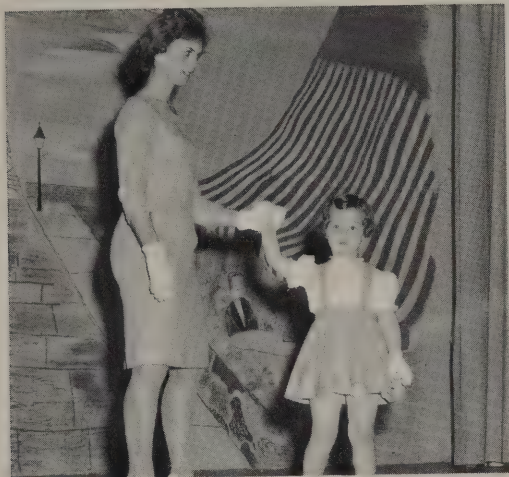

Those who did get wet didn't seem to mind at all.

MOTHERS' TEA

"April In Paris"

Arlene H. and little Karen Byeman model matching outfits.

Arlene poses before the Paris scenery in the beautiful coat she made.

After the show mothers and daughters enjoyed refreshments together.

LuLu models a shift, one of the most popular fashions this spring.

Eleanor appears all decked out--ready for the beach.

Some of the more ambitious girls like Nelda, made and modeled spring suits.

BANQUET

Doug and Virgie, two of the servers, enter through the romantic park-like lane.

The banquet owed its success to the hard work of the Pep Club in decorating the gym.

"VICTORY LANE"

Guests enjoyed a delicious dinner in the "Victory Lane" setting.

Ted Mellema received both the Player of the Year and Sportsmanship awards.

The guests enjoyed the dual-theme banquet in a lovely Southern atmosphere.

The "Lynden Sisters" favored guests with a song.

Herm Laninga proved himself a very able master of ceremonies.

John and Karen foretold the futures of the seniors.

JR.-SR.

BANQUET

The Junior Boys' Glee Club acknowledged the seniors with a musical number.

Negro servants paid close attention to Ron "Mr. Bones" Bode during the minstrel show.

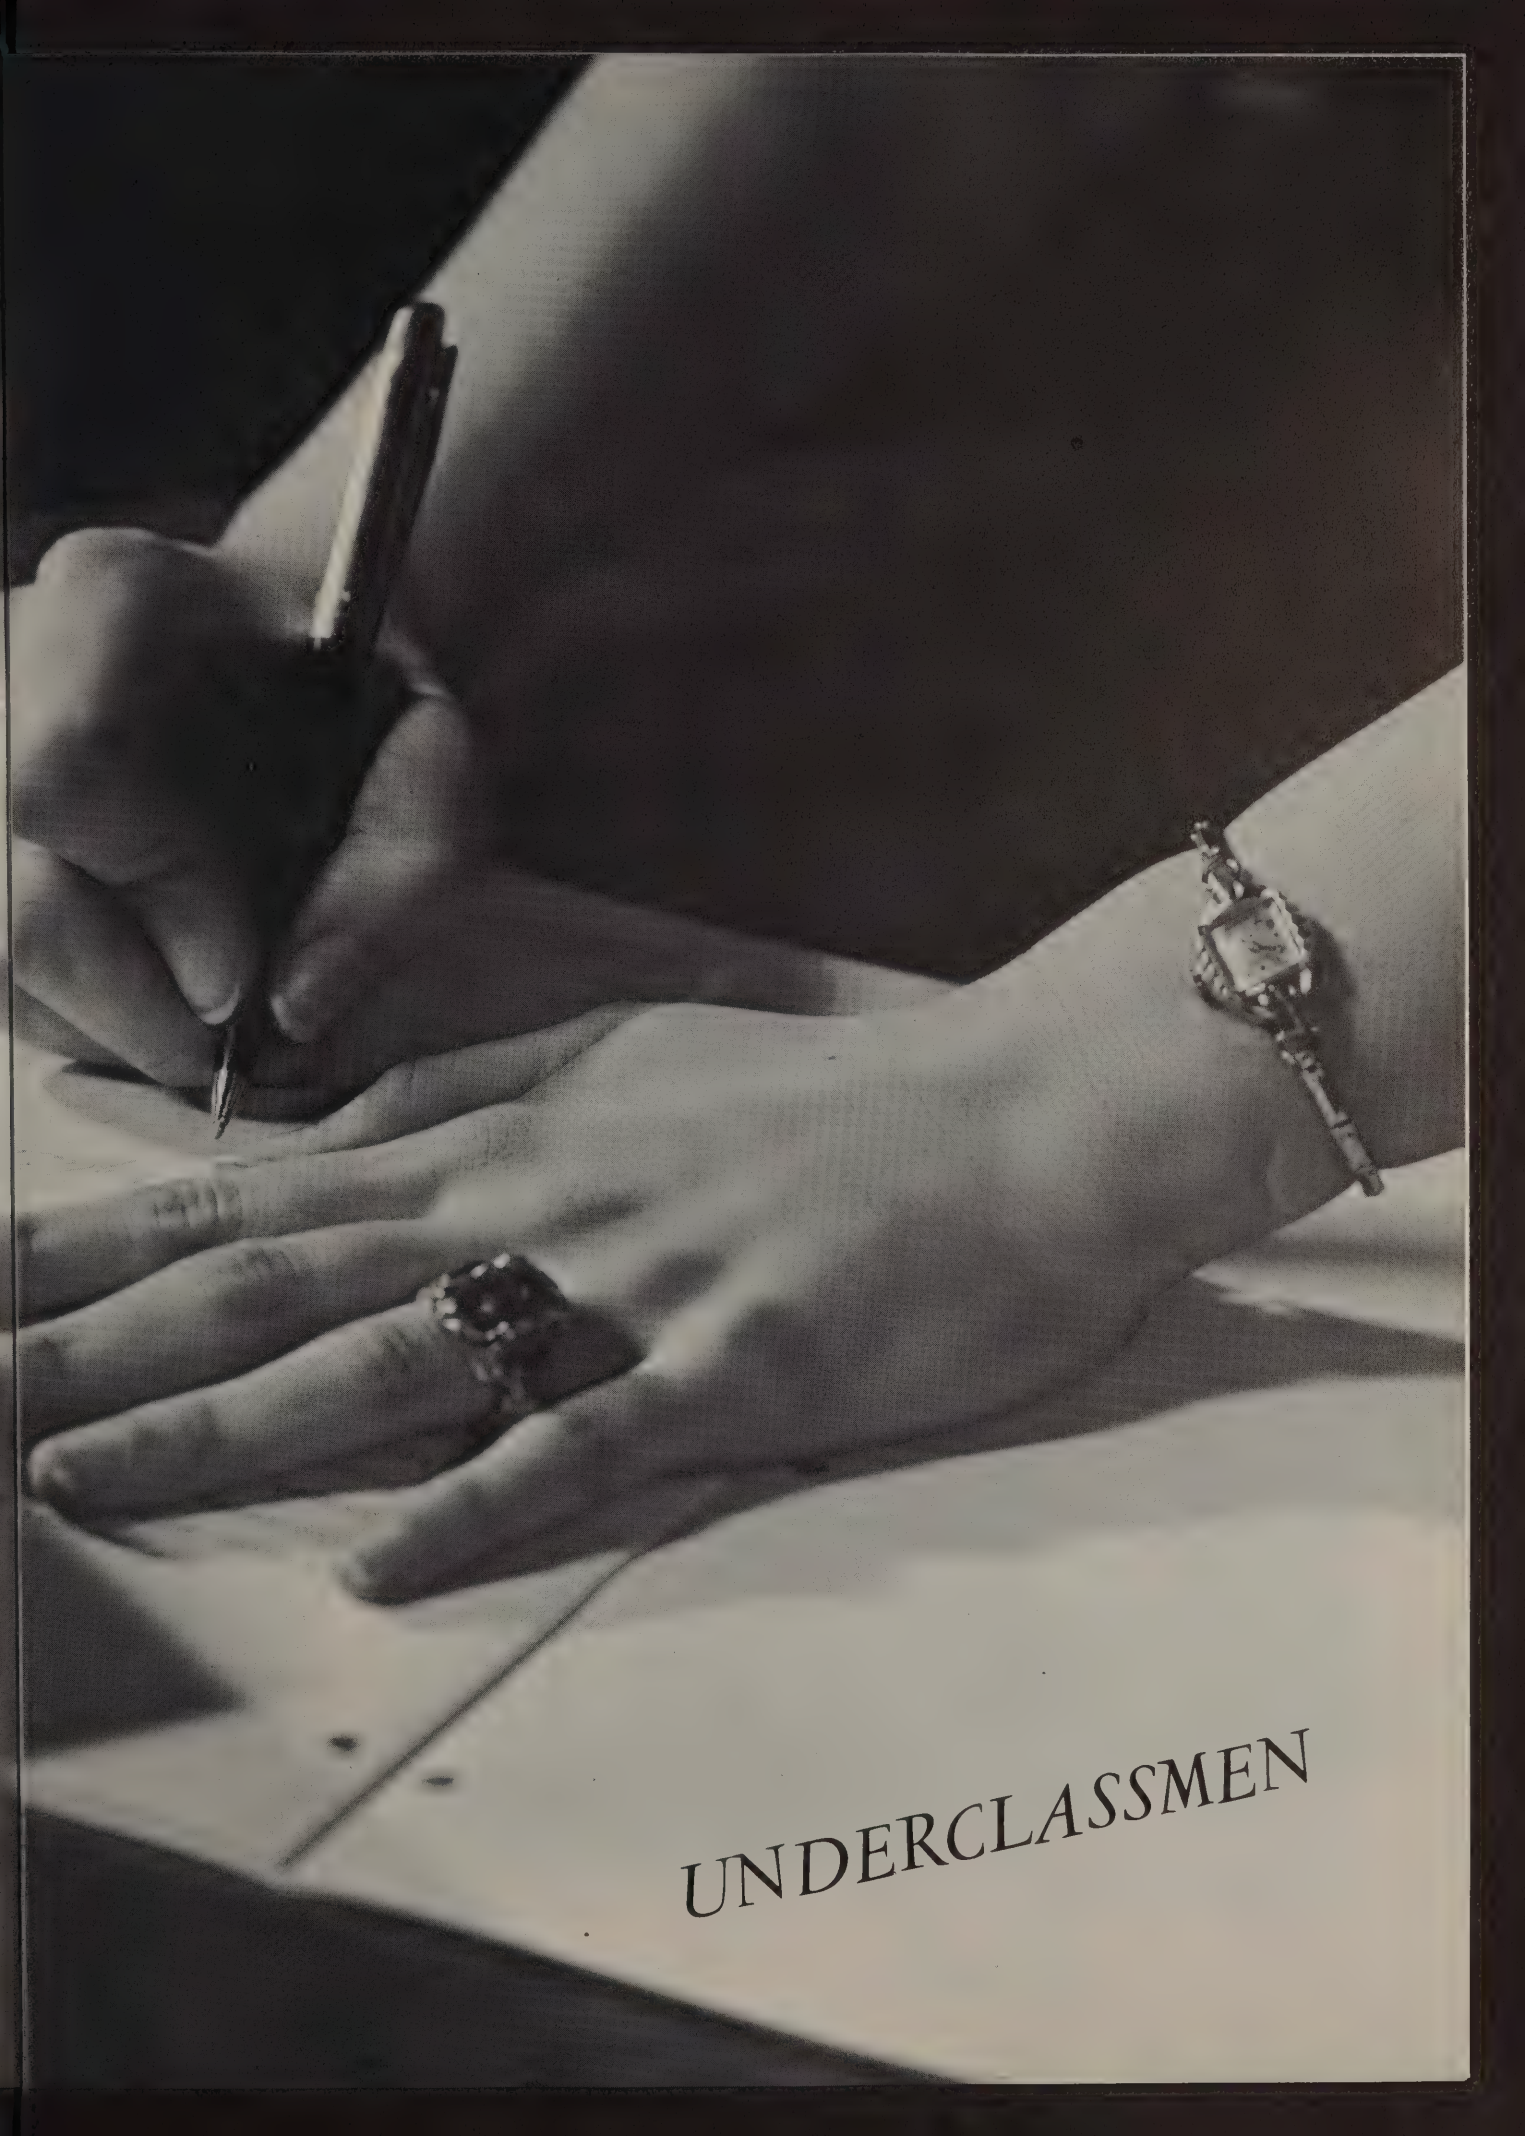

"Southern Serenade"

"Fare Thee Well"

Juniors, with a colorful mural in the background, felt relieved and proud after their strenuous preparations.

Seniors require a lot of counseling concerning future plans.

Senior home-ec students learn for all phases of future housework.

The Seniors line up to march into church for the Baccalaureate Service.

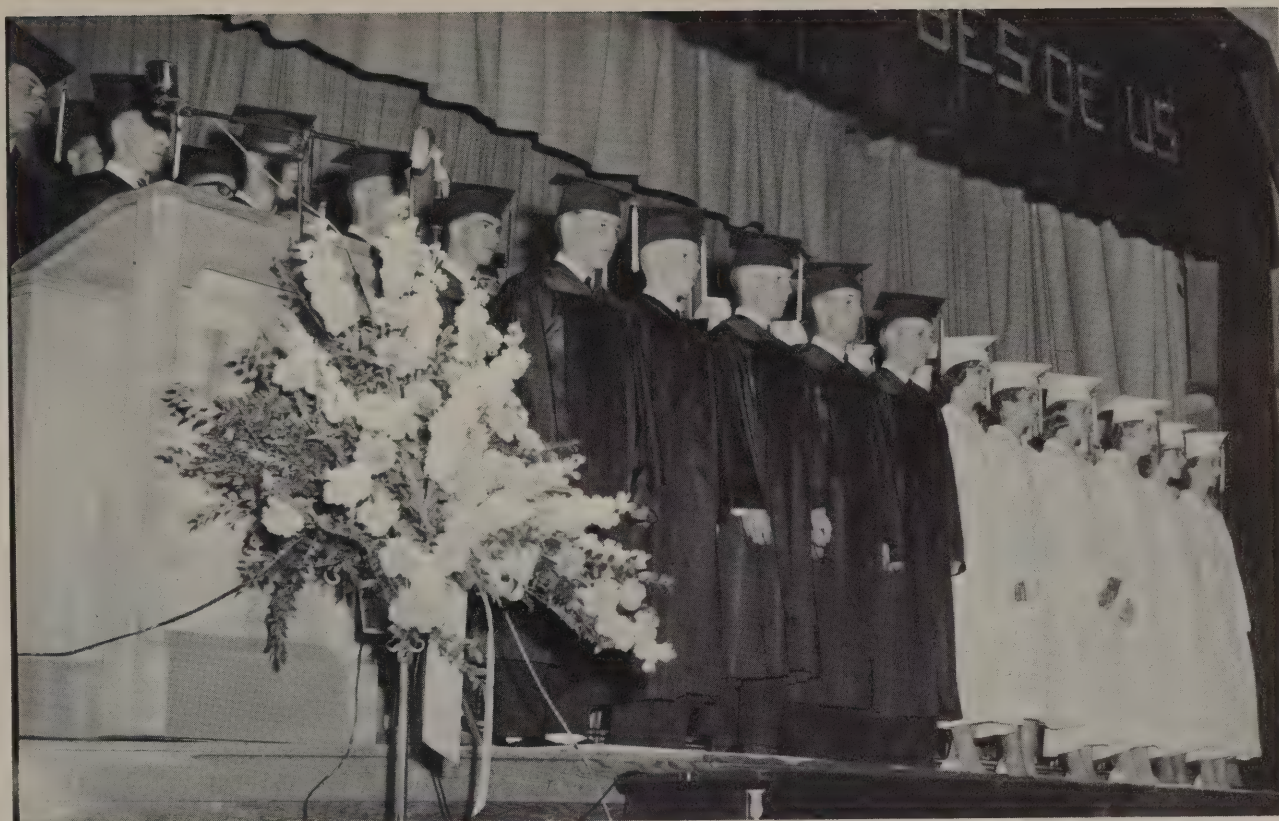

BACCALAUREATE

Rev. De Young chose the theme, "Adequately Equipped," for his address to the graduating class.

Solemnly the Seniors proceed to the front of the church for the service.

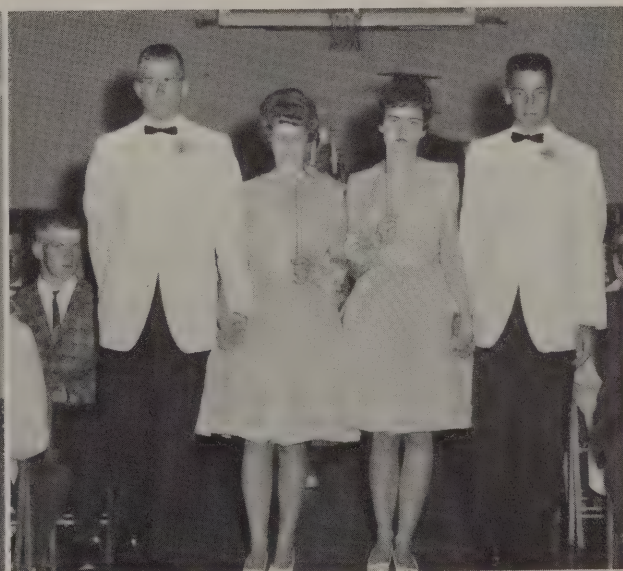

The Seniors chose as their theme, "God Walks Beside Us."

GRADUATION

Adie favored the audience with a solo entitled "Fear Thou Not, For I Am With Thee."

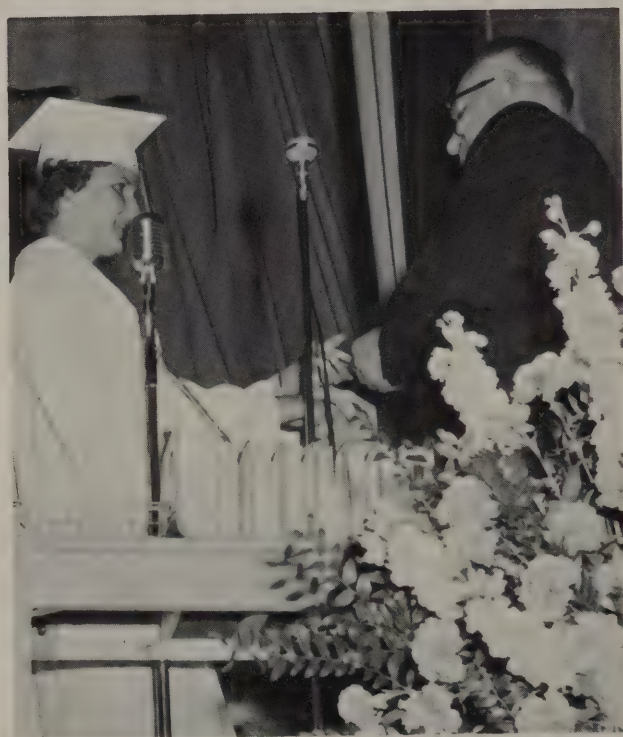

Rodney, Carolyn, Sally, and Ron ushered the Seniors down the aisle on the night of graduation.

The Seniors take their last steps to graduation and the end of their high school days.

Mr. Joe T. De Jong presented the eighty-one seniors with their hard-earned diplomas.

Class speaker, Gerry Heyboer, spoke on the theme, "God Walks Beside Us."
